Havilah Announces Tragic Death of Director Brian Morris

11/13/2018

TORONTO, Nov. 13, 2018 /CNW/ - Havilah Mining Corporation ("Havilah" or the "Company" - TSXV: HMC) announces with deep sorrow the tragic passing of Brian Morris, a director of the Company.

Brian was taken prematurely from his family and loved ones acting as a good Samaritan while helping victims involved in a car collision on November 10, 2018, in Reno, Nevada.

On behalf of our Board of Directors, management team and employees, we extend our deepest sympathies and condolences to Brian's family. Brian was a larger-than-life figure who brought remarkable passion, experience and energy to every endeavour he chose to pursue, including the many mining projects during his career.

"Those of us who had an opportunity to know Brian knew him as a great leader and friend, and his memory will continue on." Blair Schultz commented. "Brian was always there to help a person in need. He was the kind of man every person should aspire to be. He will be sorely missed."

About Havilah Mining Corporation

Havilah is a junior gold producer that owns the True North mine and mill complex and is currently reprocessing historic tailings. In addition to operating True North in Bissett, Manitoba, Havilah owns approximately 43,000 hectares of highly prospective land within and adjacent to the Rice Lake belt. Havilah believes their land package is a prime exploration opportunity to develop a mining district with a central milling facility. The Company also owns the Tully project near Timmins, Ontario. The Company intends to focus on both organic growth opportunities and accretive acquisition opportunities in North America.

Havilah's True North complex and exploration land package are located within the traditional territory of the Hollow Water First Nation, signatory to Treaty No. 5 (1875). Havilah looks forward to maintaining open, co-operative and respectful communication with the Hollow Water First Nation in order to build mutually beneficial working relationships.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Blair Schultz

Chairman, Interim President and Chief Executive Officer
